Aussie Immi & Education Consultancy (AIEC) is dedicated towards providing education consultancy services to South Asian students in making educational avenues abroad accessible to them from helping students define their goals to fulfil their chances of obtaining admission. AIEC seeks to help students at various stages of admission process. Our unique method of processing and guiding students to study abroad makes it very simple. Our expert counselors are very well educated, travelled across Asia and enormous international exposure. Our head office is in Sydney, Australia with branches in Perth and different cities in Bangladesh. AIEC has an expert team of academies consultancy & highly experience qualified agent within the Migration & Education industries. We look after your interest and provide the best advice and representation.

Aussie Immi & Education Consultancy (AIEC) is one of the leading overseas educational consultancy company in Australia. The primary objective of our firm is to provide an authorized liaison between universities and students. We work with the Universities & Colleges to recruit talented individuals across South Asia and guide the students in every step of the admission process & student visa application. Aussie Immi & Education Consultancy was built on the belief that every single student we process should match the universities expect. Our counselors are expert in advising about the admission and visa process. We deal with many leading universities across the globe. Aussie Immi & Education Consultancy act as a one-stop destination for all the aspirants who wish to go abroad for education.

Our Mission

Commitment to deliver comprehensive & quality services to our client under one roof while maintaining professional, ethical and personal integrity in all its activities.

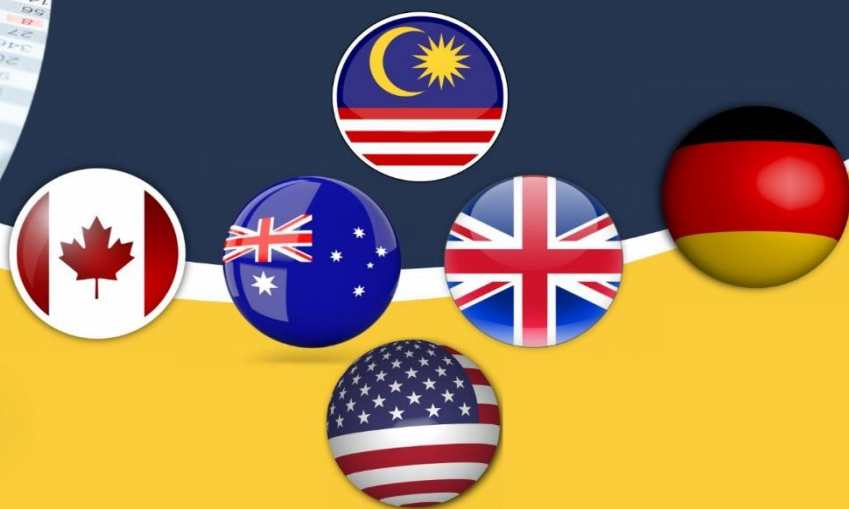

Our mission is to help overseas students by opening the doors to higher education and the realization of aspiration. Consultants and educational institutions with their considerable resources should also take their part in the creation of a better-educated and more tolerant society.

AIEC is unique in that, for the first time, it offers help and advice to both students and consultants. This means that standards can be raised and goals more easily and efficiently realized by the development of resources and the creation of opportunities for the industry as a whole, rather than just within an area of narrow self-interest.

It is our aim to provide the benchmark of service and quality and to lead by example. This means development of a code of practice by which we seek to strengthen the ties between students and consultants, rendering that relationship more honest, fruitful and transparent.
